

Thank you for your interest in TradeStation's social media sites. We participate on social media sites so that traders can learn more about TradeStation, interact with other traders and provide us with feedback. We welcome your comments. Please note that financial communications are highly regulated and that there are certain things that you should not post. We monitor all of our social media sites for questionable material and reserve the right to remove any comments that do not adhere to industry standards.

Examples of comments that are not permitted include:

- Profanity, obscenities, vulgarities or spiteful comments
- Comments that defame anyone or may be considered offensive
- Advertisements or solicitations for products or services or links to third-party sites
- Discussions about specific securities, strategies or investment advice

In addition, we strongly caution you not to disclose publicly any information of a private, financial nature – including information related to your accounts. Please note that we do not provide any customer service or facilitate any financial transactions via our social media sites. If you have a complaint about your personal account or your personal experience with TradeStation, you should contact customer support directly since complaints of a personal nature cannot be addressed via social media. For customer support, please click here for contact details or call us at 800.822.0512. View TradeStation's Privacy Notice.
