

TradeStation Crypto accepts only cryptocurrency deposits, and no cash (fiat currency) deposits. In order for you to purchase cryptocurrencies using cash, or sell your cryptocurrencies for cash, in your TradeStation Crypto account, you must also have qualified for, and opened, a TradeStation Equities account with TradeStation Securities so that your cryptocurrency purchases may be paid for with cash withdrawals from, and your cryptocurrency cash sale proceeds may be deposited in, your TradeStation Securities Equities account. This cash in your TradeStation Securities Equities account may also, of course, be used for your equities and options trading with TradeStation Securities. This cash withdrawal and deposit process will be seamless to you, and is explained in further detail in your TradeStation Crypto, Inc. Customer Account Agreement and in your TradeStation Securities, Inc. Customer Account Agreement for Equities.
